SOME SNAPS

We wish to call attention to the following bargains now on the tables. Whatever you do, watch our advertisements from now until Christmas. We are making big efforts for our share of the Christmas trade, and more than that, we are going to have it. We say this positively, because we know that the people buy where they can buy to the best advantage.

TOP SHIRTS.

Heavy knit top shirts, several patterns, 75 cts., for 45 cts.; $1.25 ones for 95 cts.; grey and blue flannel, $1.50, for $1.00.

UNDERWEAR.

We presume that since we opened this stock, more underclothing has been sold out of this store than every establishment in Belleville together has turned out. The prices have been the drawing card. Penman's 75c goods for 45c. Warm Scotch underwear, 75c., for 45c. Very fine Penman goods, $1.25 for 75c. Extra fine imported, $1.50, for $1.00.

MITTS AND GLOVES.

Knit mitts and gloves the prices right along run about one-half regular. 85c kid gloves for 50c; the 75c ones for 45c, $1.00 for 60c, $1.50 for 95c. See the gloves and mitts we have for the Christmas trade. Buy where you can save enough to make the second present and the second friend happy.

CAPS.

These nice new style caps, heavy frieze, different colors, 75c, for 50c. Fur caps, $5 for $3, $4 for $2.50, $3.50 for $2.00. See the fine seal we are selling at $3. This lot we firmly believe is sold regularly at $6. The cap we sell for the old gentlemen for $2.50 always brings $5.

When we want you to keep in mind the clothing bargains we are giving throughout the store. In every department our stock is still in pretty fair shape, we must admit we haven't got everything, but what we have will interest you.

DEAR SIR:—Some time ago I was treated by one of your best eye doctors for a cataract in the right eye, and the treatment I was subjected to was so successful that I could see as well as I could see before, and I could retain nothing but bread and butter and a little sugar.

I have recommended it to several people, and in every case it has given grand results, and a bottle of it should be in every household.

Yours very truly,

My wife's Vegetable Discovery this unhappy state has all been changed and I am a well man. I can assure you, my case was a bad one and I lend you this that it may be the means of convincing others of the wonderful curative qualities possessed by this medicine, that are specially adapted for the cure of indigestion. A lady customer of mine and the doctor were very bad, she could hardly eat anything and was very troubled with pains similar to those I suffered with and she cured herself with two bottles of Portugh & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery.
I wish you success with your medicine, as I the disease is truly alarming. It is a disease that a child will not refuse it, and a mother will give it, and will not hesitate the poor from its benefits. The mistakes of charity are virtues; the virtues of charity are crimes.

Dr. Thomas & Lyman Co. are the proprietors of Dr. Thomas' Electro Ointment, which is now being sold in immense quantities. It is a most valuable remedy, and is obtained by the suffering and the afflicted with emotions of delight, because it affords relief almost instant relief. This ointment is sold by all druggists, and is as valuable as a man's arm. It is the elixir of life to a many a weak man, and its use is indispensable, and it should be in every household.

A shabby bonnet may be more fashionable than a cathedral roof.

Indolence is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation is of a sedentary nature, are more likely to be afflicted with indolence. They worry, all suffer less or more from it, and it is the great restorer of a worried man.

On all impurities with a few doses of this medicine, the impurities of the blood containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to be cured, or the money will be refunded.

Happiness is seldom knocked down to the poor, but it is a good bidder.

Nearly all infants are subject more or less to diarrhoea and such complaints while teething, and as this period of their lives is the most dangerous, it is best to be prepared without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Infants' Symplic Comp. This medicine is the best and most reliable for the high fever spoken of by those who have used it. The proprietors claim it will cure any case of cholera or summer complaint.

Those who grow older with thorns in their sides, should be careful.

Always on hand.—Mr. Thomas H. Porter, of New Ireland, P. Q., writes: "My son, 18 months old, had crup so bad that nothing would cure him until a neighbor brought me one of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which I used, and in six hours he was cured. I have since used it on my wife and child, and could not be without a bottle of it in my house."

It is better to have your sickness darned than your credit.

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they give to the sufferer from indigestion, biliousness, pain in the side, constipation and disordered stomach.

Solid banks are not based on good results.

Why don't you try Carter's Little Liver Pills? They are a positive cure for colic, headache, and all the ills produced by disordered liver.

It is good for the children, the invalids and the most delicate patients. A dose represents less than 40 grains of alcohol and over 100 grains of malt.

Backache is almost immediately relieved.

Their Never Fail.—Mr. S. M. Boughne, Angton, writes: "For about two years I have been troubled with the inward Pile, but have used all kinds of Plasters, Ointments, and Baths, and although four years have elapsed since they have not returned." CHINA WILL NOT COSENT.

Celestials Seem to Know Their Rights and Will Maintain Them.

Peking, June 10.—The Chinese Government has caused it to be made known that up to the time of the German occupation of Kiaochow, the Chinese Government had been waiting for an opportunity to demand reparation as a result of the murder of the two German missionaries, Nien and Fennel, and the Chinese Government was now conscious between the two Governments. Concerning the German Government's position on the missionary question, the Chinese Government has expressed a strong protest to obtain a naval station, which the Chinese Government, it is said, in conclusion, will never consent to the German Government's demand for a naval base. The Chinese Government has also expressed its protest that the German Government's demand for a naval base deprives China of a harbor which, since the war with Japan, has been the most important naval base of operations.

"All that has been done so far," says my friend, "is to tell us that we are not alone." There are no foundations here. Sign your name here and we will complete the paper," he says. I have never seen such a small, immense treasure. I heard a light step at the door, and knew it was Alice.

Sagasta's Efforts Too Late to Reconcile

The Impacista's efforts to reconcile the two camps were too late. On Monday, London, Dec. 8.—The Daily Chronicle publishes yesterday a letter from our correspondent in Havana, who says: "Sagasta's efforts are too late. Under Weyler's regime half the Cuban population died; and now the remaining half has become demoralized. In addition, the Cubans in Spain, enemies who will absolutely refuse to accept Spain's word."

"The central provinces are a desert," he said. "I have been severely wounded by the infestation of American English capital. Few dare to invest in Spain, and it is clearly the duty of the United States to protect the interests of humanity and civilization and to end this fearful infestation."

Outrages in Macedonia.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Dec. 8.—Alarm was reached here yesterday from Macedonia. The Albanians are reported to be counting on the aid of the Bulgarians in the surrounding districts, killing men, outraging women and looting cattle. The Bulgarians are reported to be committing provocation and arrests of Bulgarians in Turkey also reported from the Bulgarians.

Outrage by Turkish Soldiers
London, Dec. 8.—The Daily Mail reports that a Turkish soldier, who was sent to the British Embassy in Constantinople to deliver a letter from the Turkish Ambassador to the British Foreign Secretary, Robert Lloyd, the novelist, while touring the Middleman, was seized by Turkish soldiers and taken to a prison in the city of Istanbul, 18 miles southwest of Antwerp, on Nov. 26 last. They were detained about a year in prison and experienced a number of humiliations. The British Consul in Constantinople says they were liberated. The Daily Mail says that the Government has made a "serious remonstrance" with Turkey.

"All that I want is that all good men lay, while he sits at your feet, for, as I have said, I have no doubt that Smith is a contraband vessel; but as he speaks a pained look came over his face, and he said, 'I am not a contraband vessel,' and groined with anguish.
"I saw him turn away very rapid walk, and looked at him in astonishment.
"I have never since heard him say, 'When I am not used the pang comes over my face.'"
Strictly she eyed upon him, and thought of the heavy questioning of her eyes in the old sailor's face. She felt a knock came to the door, and, entering, she saw that Smith had returned, and also to himself a long time later. She smiled at him, and he thoughtfully walked away. An orderly came in, and she said:
"Captain Smith, the General would see you instantly at his office."
"I will go with you now," said she, as he bowed his eye and looked on his sword.
"I have no doubt that you are a contraband vessel," said she, as he bowed his eye and looked on his sword.

Many persons cannot take plain cod-liver oil. They cannot digest it. It upsets the stomach. Knowing these things, we have digested the oil in Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites; that is, we have broken it up into little globules, or droplets. Railway Strike Abandoned.
London, Dec. 8.—As a result of the refusal of the Right Hon. Charles T. Ritchie, minister of railways, to grant a concession in the name of the Board in the present labor dispute, with a view to arranging a settlement, the railway strike in Canada has been abandoned.

French Expedition Masqued.

Slasher Goes to Ridge-Town.—Mr. Steve Everett, about a week yesterday, took his team and, accompanied by his son, went to the ridge-town of Ridge-Town, to load a load of lumber. The tree which he endeavored to cut down had been previously felled and another tree was to be cut across the top. In his effort to chop the tree he broke suddenly, while he had his foot on the trunk, and he fell from the several feet. He fell heavily on his head on the frozen ground and never regained consciousness. He was found by a lumberman, who was present, did what they could to restore life, but the vital spark

FROM A LEADING CHATHAM MANUFACTURER.

Maple City Coopers, R. T. Phillips, Pres. CHATHAM, Ct. 10, '97.

DEAR SIR: Some time ago I was treated by one of our best city doctors for constipated breeding at the time, and the result I was subjected to was such of my stomach that nothing I could eat would agree with me, and I could retain nothing but breast and milk, and I was in such a state of mind that I was almost in despair. I tried a dose of your Sloan's Indian Tonic and at once began to improve, and it has made a permanent cure in my case. I can now take of my food with a good appetite, and experience no distress after eating. I believe that your Sloan's Tonic is strong, and experience no distress after eating. I believe that your Sloan's Tonic is a bottle of it should be in every household.

Yours very truly,

Chicago Railway Strike—Has a Good Talker.

For some time Eugene Y. Debs, the leader of the big railway strike at Chicago, adding a large audience in the Auditorium here, has been making a tour of the United States to popularize social democracy in plain language, which, it could be said, is the right of the people. After this he left and not until they read in the St. Catharines Standard, the significance of the man, did Mr. Reulson did Mr. McNear meet him with the visitor. He is sure that it is the missing curate.

Mrs. Peters, in Saving Her Children, Received Fatal Injuries.

Wallerstein, Oct. 26.—A and accident occurred here Saturday morning, in which Mrs. Peters of Lincoln avenue, was so fatally burned that she will probably never recover. The children, who are badly burned, are seriously, now known, nearly dead.

Mrs. Peters had left for work about midnight and Mrs. Peters has not been seen to tell anyone where she supposed the children's clothing caught fire from the stove. The fire was so quick to catch that she was unable to extinguish the flames her own clothing caught fire. She ran and fell, and fell into the house next door, occurred and on the way to the hospital, her clothing was torn from her. Her hair was singed and her face was badly burned, her body but is badly burnt. She was also burnt internally. She is now in the Hood Hotel, Windsor.

DAWSON CITY

Is Quiet and Orderly and There is No Fear of Starvation.

The following extract are taken from a letter written by Mr. R. A. Choquette, of Dawson City, formerly of Belleville, to his sister, Mrs. Josephine Choquette, of Hamilton. The letter was dated September 19th, and was carried out by a returning miner, who took all and offered at the usual rate, $1 per liter, putting them at the station. After the journey out of the city, the miner was shipwrecked on the trip, Mr. Choquette goes on to say:

"I myself and two others have built a cabin at Dawson and have a very good and a pretty fair outfit so we do not feel that we are in any danger. We are making money every day. Last week, we made $1,700 in two days. Last week, and a man and his wife took gold out of their claim for several days at the rate of $100 per day, and did not come to think of anything but getting more. Of course, on the other hand, there are many claims which pay nothing."

"I think I have done fairly well since coming here. Two of us have secured a job in Dawson. I have just returned from a trip to the Yukon. I have found a claim which promises well, and if it runs out as good as it seems to be, I will be perfectly satisfied with my trip. The Klondike."

"Dawson is a quiet, orderly place, and the people are kind and obliging. There is a small church well attended, also a hospital in charge of the Sisters of Charity, which is doing good work. We have had beautiful weather so far, but it is getting cold at night, and the winter will soon be on us. The daylight hours till half-past six, but very day has a difference. In winter, the days are very short, four or five hours having a good day. I am very glad to have been here instead of remaining in Kootenai, as the time is safe and the returns quick. At the same time, I would not advise anyone to come unless they had fully made up their minds to do without many of the luxuries of life, and to make it as an opportunity presents itself."

FAIRYLAND!

Fairyland's Christmas Greeting.

ONCE more Fairyland makes its bow to the public with a confidence begotten of past success, and with this announcement launches fairly into the busy whirl of Christmas shopping, with a vim and determination that knows no "let-up."

The efforts Fairyland has made in past years for your instruction and entertainment are no doubt still green in your memory, and what Fairyland has done it will do again. Aye, more! We do not rest upon our laurels of the past, but will introduce this festive season such new features as will give Fairyland a distinct individuality not known in ordinary shop life. We are not content with what we have done, we are going to surpass all our previous efforts; we are going to give the public a surprise and a visit to Fairyland will give each and every visitor much to wonder at.

Our first hint is to not put off your visit, too long—for Fairyland has become well known to a large section surrounding Belleville, and many visitors from a distance are coming to visit us and they will be tempted to buy something, so you will understand the early visitors see the greatest sights and naturally have the best choice of our stock.

Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, China, Japan, Morocco, Egypt, India, United States and Canada have contributed to our store of novelties and we challenge any Book and Fancy Goods store in Canada to produce our superior.

You will find some points on Christmas shopping in this advertisement that will put you in the way of making up your mind what you require and save you many a thought and worry of what to get and where to get it.

Go carefully over the appended list—see what we have to offer and then come and see for yourself if every word in this Christmas talk is not true to the very letter.

Our store will be divided into departments, thus making shopping an agreeable entertainment, instead of an irksome task.

This has become a very important branch of our business. Day after day we can see it grow until now we can boast of a thoroughly equipped establishment in itself. We employ two expert framers who are constantly busy and their knowledge of pictures and picture framing is of great value to those who contemplate anything in this department for a Christmas gift.

Our stock of unframed pictures consists of goods that range from a little fac-simile Water Color at 25c up to a Steel Engraving or an etching at $10.

Our workmanship is equal to the best in Toronto and Montreal.

PERJURY CASE CUT SHORT.

Change of Venue Declared to be Not in Accordance With Law.

Quebec Must Be Tried in Orangeville. According to a decision rendered by the court at Orangeville, Ontario, the case of the late John J. Hamilton, who was charged with the murder of a woman, must be tried in Orangeville.

On remanding at 1.13 in the afternoon His Honor considered the objection raised by Mr. Johnson on behalf of the defense in the morning, virtually holding that the case was not a proper one for a change of venue. The court then adjourned until the morning of the 23rd.

The same objection was taken on behalf of the prisoner, Coleman, who was found guilty by the jury last night. Mr. Johnson, on behalf of the defense, took this objection at any stage of the trial even after the jury's finding was recorded.

On remanding at 1.13 in the afternoon His Honor considered the objection raised by Mr. Johnson on behalf of the defense in the morning, virtually holding that the case was not a proper one for a change of venue.

The other prisoners, Shull, London and Hamilton, were actually arraigned, but under the direction of Mr. Johnson were not arraigned, and took the objection to the jurisdiction of the court as was held in the Hamilton case.

On behalf of the prisoner Coleman, Mr. Johnson made an application for a writ of habeas corpus, and the court granted it.

At a late hour in the afternoon hall could not be found for Coleman, so it is assumed that he has to stay in jail.

The healthy man is pretty sure to be a victim of the disease. The ladies, who are the most susceptible, are the most likely to be attacked. The disease is a very serious one, and it is a very common one.

A Man Made Happy. Gentlemen, for five years I have suffered from dyspepsia, the pain in the pit of my stomach, aching to me. When I would go to sleep I would lie down, and I would be troubled by the pain. I have tried many remedies, but I have not been cured.

the Indian, and professor of natural history at the University of Michigan. The vessel was surrounded by a storm of pistol bullets from the coast. The crew with the greatest difficulty managed to keep them from boarding and looting the vessel of her stores and cargo. On the 17th the vessel commenced to leak up. Toward night Capt. Hays returned to her vessel with a lighter, faster engine, and to proceed to the coast, hoping she would quickly make up for the delay. But the vessel was so badly damaged, and the crew so badly injured, that she was abandoned, and the crew took to the boats and landed at Natal on the coast of Brazil, where they were taken care of by the American Consul, who, after eight days' delay, sent them to Pernambuco, where they took passage time by the steamer Revellin. Capt. Lewis remained at Natal in order to attend to the owners' interests.

PLEASING RECOLLECTIONS

Mr. H. P. Dwight Speaks Entertainingly of Old Times in Belleville.
Last Wednesday night the social, commercial and political world of Toronto, and indeed of the country, combined to honor the man who, as President and General Manager of the Great Northern Telegraph Company, has been peculiarly associated with this particular feature of the march of the electric telegraph. Mr. H. P. Dwight was the guest at the Toronto Club of a complimentary dinner, which by reason of its spontaneity and heartiness bore testimony to the strong feeling of regard, indeed of affection, in which he is held. Fifty years ago last August he entered the telegraph service in Canada, a slim, energetic young American, destined to become a thorough-going Canadian; and the 25th was his sixty-ninth birthday. His long and his birthday alike were celebrated with the most genial enthusiasm in the course of an admirable address Mr. Dwight said:
I had heard that a telegraph line was being built by the Montreal Telegraph Company in Canada, where I thought I might get employment. After ascertaining the name of the Superintendent, Mr. G. S. Wood, I wrote to him, applying for employment, and received a prompt reply, in which he asked me to report myself on the 1st of August. I was able to manage a small office, which in due course I did. I came over from Oswego to Kingston on the 27th of August, 1847, where I met Mr. Wood by appointment, and proceeded with him on the same day to Belleville, for the purpose of opening an office there, on the line which had been erected during that season between Quebec and Toronto, a distance of 500 miles, on which some 12 or 15 offices were being opened. We took lodgings along with us, and opened the office in Belleville the following day, where I was left in charge, and where I performed the duties of both operator and messenger, and remained for a couple of months.

During my stay in Belleville I became acquainted with Mr. John Ross, a young lawyer, who afterwards became the Hon. John Ross, first President of the Great Northern Railway and one of the foremost men in Canada. I also became acquainted with Mr. William Darling, who was for a long time afterwards as the first and only commercial traveller in Canada. Mr. Ross, Mr. Darling and I were the first to open an office in Belleville. A few months later Mr. Wood arrived, and the first telegraph line which he wrote as follows:—"Seeing your name reminds me of the time, about thirty years ago, when I thought of you as an operator in Belleville, when you one day read out from the instrument, while I lay in bed, the first telegraph message I ever sent over the wire, and which I printed in my little newspaper."
[The little journal in question was a 630 daily of four pages, published by Mr. (now Sir M.) Bower, and was Belleville's first daily.—Ed. 187.]
